

PROJECT INFORMATION

Development of district heating near Munich

Building contract:

Feasibility investigation, planning the technical facilities and construction supervision.
Development of district heating development for a construction area with 1,400 housing units, schools, nursery schools, shops and offices, supply of residual thermal energy from waste incineration plant located at a distance of 3 km. A total of approx. 35,000 km of plastic jacket piping and data cabling, 500 domestic connections to the system with a thermal output of 10,000 kW.

Client:

Gemeinde Olching and Techem Energy Contracting GmbH

Total investment:

5,5 Mio. EUR technical equipment

Planning/implementation: 1998 - 2008