

PROJECT INFORMATION

Stadtwerkzentrale München – climatisation

Building contract:	Planning, construction supervision and implementation of the technical facilities. Subsequent climatisation of the building in running office operation, to a large extent with avoidance of interferences, incorporation into the existing refrigeration supply was free of interruptions. Assembly of 2,400 circulating air conditioning units, 1000 m of steel tubing for the main distribution network as well as 40000 m of plastic tubing for the distributors on the individual floor levels, the existing generation system was initially reinforced by a container unit.
Client:	Stadtwerke München GmbH
Total investment:	4,5 Mio. EUR technical equipment
Planning/implementation:	2004